Lord Jesus,

In this season of hope, I ask for your wisdom to strengthen my mind and spirit to overcome any obstacles I may face. Help us to trust in you as you are our hope and refuge on the day of trouble. Set me free from all trials and heal my heart of any afflictions. Remind me daily to walk in spirit with you. We ask this through Christ our Lord, Amen.

Martin Jaimon, Cardinal Hume Catholic School

Jesus gives us hope as we witness to His resurrection, so that we may pursue our Faith in our work & through our family lives and extend our love to all around us.

On this World Day of Prayer for Vocations, we pray for those who are looking to answer their call to a future in religious life and hope that they will find fulfilment within the church.

We pray for our politicians following the local elections this week and pray that they will show honesty & integrity as they work to take us out of this economic situation and help those struggling through unemployment and hardship.

We pray that the Lord will send his healing power to all our friends & family who are ill, especially those suffering with the virus.

We pray that everyone will find their own way and seek their own vocations in life. May they find satisfaction and personal success in their calling.

We send prayers to everyone suffering within the warzone in Ukraine. May they be given the strength to continue to defend their right to an independent future and pray for all who are supporting them in their fight.
